Personal Application

Abiding and the End Game

---

1 JOHN 2:28-3:10

Overview

Similarly to our last section, this passage continues as an encouragement to remain in God no matter what comes our way. John now gives more clarity as to how we should go about remaining in God. We abide in God with a right goal, anchored in a new identity that transforms how we live.

Reflection Questions

1. What thoughts and emotions come to mind when you think about the return of Christ? How should his return motivate life today?
2. How does your new identity in Christ encourage you? What impact does being loved by God and being God's child have in everyday life for you?
3. What other truths from Scripture can you think of that speak to your new identity in Christ?
4. Give an example (or several) of something different about you since you became a Christian. How has your life changed?
5. Where in your life are you encouraged about righteous living? Where in your life are you discouraged about righteous living? How does this passage in 1 John encourage you?
6. What could be different in the way you think and/or live this week as a result of this study and discussion?
